The mined rate halving is also identical to Bitcoin's, as once per four years The maximum mined reward of Zcash would occur on December 1, 2016.. The Zcash mining contracts are up for brags (expect to brag about being the earliest adopters of ZCash thanks to cloud mined profits) for a limited time, therefore it is the early birds who are expected to get the top-notch payouts from cloud mining the coin.

Unlike Bitcoin, Zcash transactions automatically hide the sender, recipient, and value of all transactions on the blockchain.. For general Cryptocurrency discussion, please see Zcash is expected to officially launch as a cryptocurrency on October 28, 2016.. Oh, and Zcash would run entirely on its own Blockchain, so it is purposed to go to a different direction than Bitcoin is currently going to technologically-wise.
